

To the Glory of the Great Gardener,
Father of All Garden

— Special Treaty of Amity —

Between the Independent Ancient Order of Free Gardeners (hereinafter referred to as "the IAOFG") and the Grand Lodge of the Free Gardeners (hereinafter referred to as "the GLFG")

Recognizing the shared heritage and fraternal bonds that unite Free Gardeners across the globe, and desiring to foster closer cooperation and mutual support, the IAOFG and the GLFG, through their duly authorized representatives, have agreed upon this Treaty of Amity.

~ The IAOFG and the GLFG ~ formally recognize each other as independent and sovereign Grand Bodies, each possessing exclusive jurisdiction within its established territories. Neither Body shall interfere in the internal affairs of the other.

Article II: Fraternal Intercourse

Members in good standing of either the IAOFG or the GLFG shall be entitled to visit the Lodges of the other. The IAOFG and the GLFG agree to render each other all reasonable assistance in the preservation of the landmarks and traditions of Free Gardening, the promotion of its principles, and the suppression of spurious or irregular bodies.

To the Glory of the Great Gardener,
Father of All Garden

Special Treaty of Amity

Article IV: Mutual Assistance

The IAOFG and the GLFG agree to render each other all reasonable assistance in the preservation of the landmarks and traditions of Free Gardening, the promotion of its principles, and the suppression of spurious or irregular bodies.

Article III: Amicable Settlement of Disputes

Should any dispute or misunderstanding arise between the IAOFG and the GLFG, or between their respective members, the matter shall be referred to a joint commission composed of an equal number of representatives from each Body. The commission shall endeavor to resolve the dispute in a spirit of amity and fraternity.
